

Nat Dip Health & Social Care Unit 8 Topic B	Road Map
In this unit you will focus on the principles and practicalities that underpin meeting individuals' care and support needs The aims are as follows: LG1: Knowledge LG2: Application LG3: Skills	Assessment Grades
	Topic B: Examine the factors affecting health and the impact of addressing these factors to improve public health
	Case study questions	Internal assessment
Themes	Learning Goals/Outcomes/Content
1. Factors Affecting Health – Socio-Economic Environmental Factors Genetic Factors Lifestyle Factors	LG1: To know the factors that impacts on rates of obesity. LG2: B.P3 Explain factors affecting current patterns of health and ill health in a specific demographic area. B.M2 Assess the extent to which factors affect current patterns of health and ill health, with reference to a specific demographic area.
2. Evaluation of Strategies	LG1: To explain how to reduce risks through screening. LG2: AB.D1 Evaluate how far the use of strategies and monitoring the health status of the population helps public health policy to meet its aims in reducing the factors that influence public health, with reference to a specific demographic area.
3. Coursework - Task 1	A.P1 Explain the strategies used to develop public health policy in order to meet its aims. A.P2 Explain how monitoring information to determine patterns of health and ill health is used by government to inform the creation of public health policy. A.M1 Analyse how public health policy is influenced by strategies and patterns of health and ill health. B.P3 Explain factors affecting current patterns of health and ill health in a specific demographic area. B.P4 Explain the impact of public health policy in minimising these factors in relation to a specific demographic area. B.M2 Assess the extent to which factors affect current patterns of health and ill health with reference to a specific demographic area. B.M3 Assess how minimising the factors affecting health can contribute to improving the health of the population in relation to the area. AB.D1 Evaluate how far the use of strategies and monitoring the health status of the population helps public health policy to meet its aims in reducing the factors that influence public health, with reference to a specific demographic area					