Nat Dip Health & Social Care Unit 8 Topic A	Road Map
In this unit you will focus on the principles and practicalities that underpin meeting individuals' care and support needs The aims are as follows: LG1: Knowledge LG2: Application LG3: Skills	Assessment Grades
	Topic A: Examine strategies for developing public health policy to improve the health of individuals and the population
	Case study questions Internal assessment
Themes	Learning Goals/Outcomes/Content	👍	✊	👎
1. The origins and aims of public health policy	LG1: To be able to identify ways in which public health has been contributed since 1942. Students will be able to identify the aims of public health policy and the strategies for developing public health policy. LG2: A.P1 Explain the strategies used to develop public health policy in order for it to meet its aims.
2. The origins and aims of public health policy – informing public health Planning National Provision of Healthcare and Promoting the Health of the Population	LG1: To be able to identify ways in which public health has been contributed since 1942. Students will be able to identify the aims of public health policy and the strategies for developing public health policy. LG2: A.P1 Explain the strategies used to develop public health policy in order for it to meet its aims.
3. Identifying and Monitoring the Needs of the Population Identifying and Reducing Inequalities	LG1: To be able to identify ways in which public health has been contributed since 1942. Students will be able to identify the aims of public health policy and the strategies for developing public health policy. LG2: A.P1 Explain the strategies used to develop public health policy in order for it to meet its aims.
4. Protecting Society From Health Threats Addressing National Health Problems Developing Programmes to Screen for Early Diagnosis of Disease	LG1: To be able to identify ways in which public health has been contributed since 1942. Students will be able to identify the aims of public health policy and the strategies for developing public health policy. LG2: A.P1 Explain the strategies used to develop public health policy in order for it to meet its aims.
5. Public health strategies	LG1: To be able to identify ways in which public health has been contributed since 1942. Students will be able to identify the aims of public health policy and the strategies for developing public health policy. LG2: A.P1 Explain the strategies used to develop public health policy in order for it to meet its aims.
6. Monitoring the Health Status of the Population	LG1: To know the responsibilities of organisations on an international, government, region and local level. LG2: A.P2 Explain how monitoring information to determine patterns of health and ill health is used by government to inform the creation of public health policy.

	A.M1 Analyse how public health policy is influenced by strategies and patterns of health and ill health.
7. National Groups That Influence Public Health Policy	LG1: To explain who NICE and Cancer Research UK are, how they monitor and the guidance they give. LG2: A.P2 Explain how monitoring information to determine patterns of health and ill health is used by government to inform the creation of public health policy. A.M1 Analyse how public health policy is influenced by strategies and patterns of health and ill health.
8. Pressure Groups That Influence Public Health Policy	LG1: To explain what the BHF is, what they research and their current research contributions. LG2: A.P2 Explain how monitoring information to determine patterns of health and ill health is used by government to inform the creation of public health policy. A.M1 Analyse how public health policy is influenced by strategies and patterns of health and ill health.
9. Statistics – Local, Regional and Government	LG1: To know the local, regional and national statistics contributing to public health policy. LG2: A.P2 Explain how monitoring information to determine patterns of health and ill health is used by government to inform the creation of public health policy. A.M1 Analyse how public health policy is influenced by strategies and patterns of health and ill health.			