

Ext Cert & Nat Dip Health & Social Care Unit 1 Topic B	Road Map
In this unit you will identify factors affecting human growth and development. The aims are as follows: LG1: Knowledge LG2: Application LG3: Skills	Assessment Grades
	Topic B: Factors affecting human growth and development
	Practice Exam Questions
Themes	Learning Goals/Outcomes/Content
Identify the difference between nature and nurture	LG1: Discuss the nature- nurture debate in relation to an individual LG2: Identify key theorists and discuss their arguments in relation to the debate LG3: Evaluation of how nature and nurture may affect development
Identify a range of genetic factors that could affect development	LG1: Identify different life factors that affect development LG2: Explain potential effects of different life factors on the development of the individual (genetic factors)
Identify a range of biological factors that could affect development	LG1: Explain the difference between genetic and biological factors LG2: Identify biological factors LG3: Explain potential effects of different life factors on the development of the individual (biological)
Lifestyle Factors	LG1: Identify lifestyle factors LG2: Identify reasons why a healthy diet is important in relation to development LG3: Identify and explain how diet related illnesses could affect development
Environmental factors on development	LG1: Identify environmental factors LG2: Explain potential effects of different life factors on the development of the individual
Socio-economic factors on development	LG1: Explain potential socio-economic factors LG2: Identify the effects of socio-economic factors the development of the individual LG3: Identify how the socio-economic may affect development at two life stages.
Different types of life events	LG1: Explain the influences of two predicable major life events on the development of an individual LG3: Create a timeline on life events of an individual
Review of Factors	Topic B Life Events Case Study Exam Preparation Factors affecting human growth and development
Links: Unit 1 Human lifespan and development and the impact of life events. Topic A: Human growth and development through the life stages				