

Duke of Edinburgh Expedition Conduct Contract

1. While on the expedition, students are to be self-sufficient. Leaders and supervisors are there for support however students are expected to be mostly independent.
2. Students are expected to adhere to the usual school behaviour policy while on expedition. Oldbury Wells School will be represented by your actions. If any student defies Oldbury Wells behaviour policy while on expedition, they may be deferred and have to end their expedition for now.
3. Students will respect their team members, leaders, the general public, the environment and the local wildlife.
4. Students will adhere to the Countryside Code at all times.
5. All students will participate equally in the planning and execution of the group expedition.
6. No student will use GPS for the duration of the expedition.
7. All student groups must remain independent from other Duke of Edinburgh groups. Walking in a group of more than 7 people will result in the expedition being deferred.
8. Mobile phones are not to be used during the expedition. One phone per group will be taken in sealed packaging for emergency use only. It will remain off otherwise. You will be provided with an emergency contact number before the expedition commences to be used only in emergencies.
9. Students must adhere to the Duke of Edinburgh 20 conditions in order to successfully complete the expedition.

I, the undersigned, agree to the above code of conduct terms for the Oldbury Wells Wenlock Edge Duke of Edinburgh Bronze award expedition 2019. I recognise that if I breach the terms of these conditions then I risk my group's successful completion of the expedition.
